ACHIEVEMENTS

Summary

My research to date has been in the area of Organizational and Systems Process Design, an important practice to achieve operational excellence, IT design, workflow efficiency or business innovation. My work has especially focused on Process Design Practices, Organizational Innovation and Business Transformation Management.

I have been the highest ranked Australian researcher in the field of Information Systems in each of the past three years, based on publications in the top six journals over a three-year period.

I have written over 120 academic books, journal articles and conference papers. My h-index is 25 and my i10-index is 52. Overall, my papers have been cited over 2,200 times.

I have received funding in excess of AUS $2mio, by the Australian Research Council, industry partners such as SAP, Suncorp, Woolworths, state government and others.

I am recipient of a prestigious Alexander-von-Humboldt Fellowship and a LCAIS Fellowship for my research on process decision-making and organizational sustainability transformations. This work has led, amongst others, to the first published academic book on the Management of Sustainable Business Processes, published in May 2012.

I have been appointed in visiting positions at several renowned universities, including the University of British Columbia in Vancouver (2010), Humboldt University Berlin (2009-current), The University of Liechtenstein (2010-current), Stevens Institute of Technology (2007), Vienna University of Economics and others.

I have received multiple national and international awards for my teaching and research performance.
